PROFILE

Passionate & versatile, I've been gracing screens and pages in commercials and print ads. My journey began with baby steps, quite literally, and has evolved into a love affair with acting, singing, theater, and modeling. I dive headfirst into every role, seamlessly becoming my character in front of the camera. My commitment extends beyond the screen, with ongoing training in various disciplines. The challenges of this industry are dynamic and I'm ready for it all.
