BIOGRAPHY

Keating Sharp is a funny and creative 7th grader from Loveland, Ohio. He's an actor, drummer, pianist, guitarist, golfer, skateboarder and expert at annoying his older sister. He loves working on camera as well as the stage and is always up for new experiences! Keating recently worked on his first feature film, Dark Waters, with Mark Ruffalo, Anne Hathaway, and "super chill" director, Todd Haynes. As always, Keating is excited and ready to film more!
