ABOUT ME

An Indianapolis, Indiana native, Malia's performance gift was made known at a very early age. Malia realized she was destined to model when she was cast in a clothing brand campaign for Speak Life. Malia's drive and dedication to the craft is supported by her family and friends.

Away from the camera, Malia continues other creative activities. She is a singer, dancer, instrumentalist, actor, screenwriter, photographer and filmmaker. She also enjoys skating, and traveling the world.
